

Almond Country Holiday Quilt Auction

The Almond Country Quilt Guild (ACQG) presents its 28th Annual Holiday Charity Quilt Auction on Saturday, November 4 at the Trinity Lutheran Church, 940 Creston Road in Paso Robles. Doors will open at 6:00 p.m. for a Silent Auction, viewing of the Live Auction Quilts and finger food refreshments. The Live Auction starts at 7:00 p.m. This year's profits will benefit "Along Comes Hope" which is a support group for families of children fighting cancer and "Tolosa Children's Dental Center" which provides free dental work for children of low income families as well as continuing education for our local ACQG quilters. There is no cost to attend, so please join us for a beautiful evening that supports our local needs.

We have an amazing variety of merchandise made by local artists and quilters. The event will feature a quilt raffle, handmade quilts and wall hangings, gift items, a fully decorated tree and much more.
